

Gurumat Samagam 2025

The Gurmat Samagam, hosted by GDC Tral on October 17–19, 2025 at Gurdwara Guru Nanak Devji Boarding House, Tral, was a noteworthy initiative dedicated to promoting interfaith harmony, brotherhood, and peace. The program was inaugurated by the worthy Principal, Prof. Muzafar Ahmad Bhat, who highlighted the Gurus' teachings and the importance of living together peacefully. In his opening address, Prof. Muzafar Ahmad Bhat extended a warm welcome to all participants and expressed his commitment to holding similar programs in the future to further enhance interfaith ties and mutual understanding.

The event saw enthusiastic participation from prominent members of the Sikh community, including Ragi Kulwinder Singh (Chandigarh), Arnupal Singh and Kamalgeet Singh (Kanglora). These esteemed guests offered meaningful perspectives on the theme, adding depth to the discussions and motivating the audience.

The Gurmat Sangam Celebration Committee, headed by its convener Dr. Amarjeet Singh, Head of the Department of Punjabi, coordinated the event efficiently. Faculty from all departments and nearly 80 eager students attended the program, showcasing the college's dedication to nurturing unity and spiritual awareness. The enthusiasm and positive energy of the participants highlighted the event's success in fulfilling its noble goals.
